

Cultural Arts Festival

Issue #6

Monday, July 8, 2002

Camera: Dick Moore

Computer: Paul T. Stefurak

Editor: Jax Levesque

Deaf Way II Opening Ceremony

Deaf Way II officially opens its program tonight at 7:00 pm at the Washington Convention Center (WCC). This will begin our week long celebration of the arts of the world by Deaf people. Following this opening, the favorite International Deaf Club will begin its week long sojourn during Deaf Way II at the same location. That event begins at 9:00 am.

It was reported in the previous issue that this group was the Japan Theatre group. We offer our regrets that this is erroneous. The group is the Hong Kong Deaf Theatre group.

Eiichi Mitsui (Japan) Kutani ware. Ancient art form of decorating porcelain vessels with low fire enamels. Owns a pottery shop in Japan.

hai. Ze Hong feels strongly that artists should feel free to explore and to incorporate new technology in their art work.

Ze Hong from China

This woman artist experiments with new forms and materials. She has operated her own studio in a plush shopping center. She has won numerous awards and currently resides in Shang-

Eiichi Mitsui of Japan

This is another piece of Kutani ware in the art world. The exquisitely painted designs incorporate flowers, birds and intricate patterns.

Where is this work of art hung?
 Who did this?
 When was it done?
 Can you guess the answers to all these questions?
 Let this office know at GUKCC in Room 3101!

